WSRLFC - Clayton Cup Winners – 1992

Clayton Cup Winners – 1937 to 2016

The Clayton Cup is a trophy awarded by the Country Rugby League to the NSW Rugby League team with the best overall record for that season. To be eligible, the team must win the highest level of competition in its region. Usually the winner of the Clayton Cup goes through the season undefeated. The Cup was donated by Reub Clayton, an early rugby league administrator in country NSW, and was first awarded in 1937 to West Tamworth. Since then, the Tweed Heads Seagulls and Forster - Tuncurry have been the most successful clubs, each winning the trophy three times. Moruya Sharks won in 2016.
